A photograph of a beach with waves crashing onto the shore. The water is a vibrant blue-green, and the sand is a warm, golden-brown. The waves are breaking, creating white foam that contrasts with the darker water. The sky is not visible, focusing the viewer's attention on the ocean and the beach.

Luke 24:44-53 (CEB)

Jesus said to them, “These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you—that everything written about me in the Law from Moses, the Prophets, and the Psalms must be fulfilled.” Then He opened their minds to understand the Scriptures. He said to them, “This is what is written: the Christ will suffer and rise from the dead on the third day...”

Luke 24:44-53 (CEB)

He said to them, “This is what is written: the Christ will suffer and rise from the dead on the third day, and a change of heart and life for the forgiveness of sins must be preached in His name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things.

Luke 24:44-53 (CEB)

Look, I'm sending to you what my Father promised, but you are to stay in the city until you have been furnished with heavenly power."

He led them out as far as Bethany, where He lifted His hands and blessed them. As He blessed them, He left them and was taken up to heaven. They worshipped Him and returned to Jerusalem overwhelmed with joy. And they were continuously in the temple praising God.

The background of the slide features a close-up of ocean waves with white foam, transitioning from a deep blue at the top to a sandy yellow at the bottom. On the left side, there is a vertical green bar with a slight gradient and a 3D effect. A thin blue line extends from the right side of this bar, branching out to connect to four horizontal blue boxes stacked vertically on the right.
