All ways to say HELLO here in the land of 11 nationally recognized languages.

We arrived! Safe and sound, with all luggage in one piece.... Praise the Lord!!! What an eventful 10 day conference we had in Germany. We were able to meet many people from over 30 different nationalities. We were so blessed to create wonderful friendships here. Also; we took in a half day of touring and visiting a castle in Heidelberg to celebrate Parker's birthday. What a moment to cherish. And like all conferences, we also took part in the ritual of catching a cold. Thankfully we landed in the heat of summer in South Africa. The heat dried up our illness, and the sunny rays boosted our smiles! Now you may be wondering what we are doing here, exactly. First we are required to complete the MDT program. Then we finally get to sink our teeth into our roles at eh OM Africa office... aka The Link.

MDT you may ask what this is? And Why? Mission Discipleship Training uses knowledge, experience, community, and coaching to help us become improved disciples of Jesus. Through lectures from experienced teachers and missionaries we will study a wide variety of topics aimed to equip us in understanding more about God. His word and His world. During our time at this 5 month training course we will take part in several outreaches, working alongside our ministry partners and local churches. We will visit rural villages, inner cities, and world faiths communities. While staying on base for MDT we look forward to getting to know the 13 different nationalities that will also be taking this course in the form of 48 people.

We have been so blessed to have such wonderful supporters and prayer partners such as yourself. THNAK YOU! For all you have done and are doing to get us here and keep us here. We are so thrilled to be able to reach out to those who need to hear the Good News. As we learn the local language(s) we plan to create lasting relationships and stories.

Prayer Points

* Please pray for us and others who are searching for a car for us to use/buy while we stay in Pretoria. This is a very long process.

* Please pray for those in search for housing for us when we finish MDT. This too is a very long process. And we would greatly appreciate guidance for a safe place to live that is affordable to our budget.

* Transitioning is difficult no matter where you are, please pray that we use grace and give grace for those rough times.

* This may seem very generic, but for security reasons we will keep it that way, please pray for our friends and family back home as they deal with life without us, friend issues, family issues, and health difficulties.

* We also are seeking prayer for new relationships that last, mentors to come into our lives and stay, and to keep an open heart and open mind to this new experience.
