Only God can satisfy our desire for more

- “Enjoy the Lord, and He will give what your heart asks.”

Psalm 37:4

But Wait, There's More!

<sup>1</sup> The snake was the most intelligent of all the wild animals that the Lord God had made. He said to the woman, “Did God really say that you shouldn’t eat from any tree in the garden?”

<sup>2</sup> The woman said to the snake, “We may eat the fruit of the garden’s trees <sup>3</sup> but not the fruit of the tree in the middle of the garden. God said, ‘Don’t eat from it, and don’t touch it, or you will die.’”

Genesis
3:1-8

<sup>4</sup> The snake said to the woman,
“You won’t die! <sup>5</sup> God knows that on the day you eat from it, you will see clearly and you will be like God, knowing good and evil.”

<sup>6</sup> The woman saw that the tree was beautiful with delicious food and that the tree would provide wisdom, so she took some of its fruit and ate it, and also gave some
to her husband, who was with her,
and he ate it.

Genesis
3:1-8

<sup>7</sup> Then they both saw clearly and knew that they were naked. So they sewed fig leaves together and made garments for themselves.

<sup>8</sup> During that day's cool evening breeze, they heard the sound of the Lord God walking in the garden; and the man and his wife hid themselves from the Lord God in the middle of the garden's trees.

give what your heart asks.”

Psalm 37:4

“To journey for the sake of saving our own lives is little by little to cease to live in any sense that really matters, even to ourselves, because it is only by journeying for the world’s sake...that little by little we start to come alive.”
