Call to Focus: “Psalm 16:1-2, 5-11”

L: Protect me, God, because I take refuge in you.

P: I say to the Lord, “You are my Lord. Apart from you, I have nothing good.”

L: You, Lord, are my portion, my cup; you control my destiny.

P: The property lines have fallen beautifully for me; yes, I have a lovely home.

L: I will bless the Lord who advises me; even at night I am instructed in the depths of my mind.

P: I always put the Lord in front of me; I will not stumble because He is on my right side.

L: That’s why my heart celebrates and my mood is joyous; yes, my whole body will rest in safety.

P: You won’t abandon my life to the grave; you won’t let your faithful follower see the pit.

L: You teach me the way of life. In your presence is total celebration.

P: Beautiful things are always in your right hand.

Exodus 20:17, “Do not desire and try to take your neighbor’s house. Do not desire and try to take your neighbor’s wife, male or female servant, ox, donkey, or anything else that belongs to your neighbor.”

James 4:1-2, “What is the source of conflict among you? What is the source of your disputes? Don’t they come from your cravings that are at war in your own lives? You long for something you don’t have, so you commit murder. You are jealous for something you can’t get, so you struggle and fight. You don’t have because you don’t ask.”

Philippians 4:11–13, “I’m not saying this because I need anything, for I have learned how to be content in any circumstance. I know the experience of being in need and of having more than enough; I have learned the secret to being content in any and every circumstance, whether full or hungry or whether having plenty or being poor. I can endure all these things through the power of the one who gives me strength.”
